A Visit to the Zoo

Little Tommy and his mom went to visit the city zoo. They wanted to see the wild animals from different places of the world. They bought the tickets at the zoo entrance and went in. Inside they walked on a narrow trail and saw cages and areas of land surrounded by fence. The first wild animal they saw there was an elephant. It had a huge body with a long thick trunk and two ivory tusks. After that, Tommy and Mom went towards the area where the lions lived. The lions were laying down in the shade and didn't care about the curious people who were watching them. Then, Mom and Tommy saw a giraffe.

"Tommy, do you want to feed the giraffe?" asked Mom.

"Yes, but the giraffe is much taller than me," answered Tommy.

Mom led Tommy to the steps that took him to a higher platform. There Tommy got some leaves and gave them to the giraffe. He watched in amazement how the giraffe chewed the leaves slowly. After that, Tommy and his mom went to see the other wild animals in the zoo.

Hannah's Crayons

Hannah received a pack of six crayons for her birthday from her grandpa. She loved her crayons so much that she drew pictures almost every day. She used the yellow crayon to draw the sun and the stars. She used the red crayon to draw hearts and flowers. She used the green crayon to draw plants and the grass. She used the brown crayon to draw a monkey and a grizzly bear. She used the blue crayon to draw the sky and the ocean. She never used the black crayon, though. One day, she took her crayons to school. She showed them to her friend, Kate.

"Can I draw with your crayons, too?" asked Kate.

"You can draw with all the crayons except the black one. I haven't used it yet," added Hannah.

"That's O.K.!" said Kate.

Kate grabbed the red, yellow, blue, brown, and green crayons and started to draw a garden full of trees and flowers.

2. Use evidence in the text to answer each question. Color the evidence.

Tiger Sharks

Tiger sharks have dark stripes on their body that resemble the stripes on a tiger. The stripes can be seen very well on the young tiger sharks, but they begin to fade and almost disappear as these sharks grow up.

Most tiger sharks live in the Atlantic Ocean. They have very large bodies, a wedge-shaped head, sharp teeth, and strong jaws. They can camouflage easily in the deep ocean because their skin is blue or light green and their underbelly is white. They can also grow to be about 14-20 feet long and they can weigh more than 1,400 pounds.

Tiger sharks are known to be some of the most powerful predators in the ocean. They have great senses of sight and smell and like to hunt at night. They feed on fish, seals, sea snakes, crabs, turtles, or dolphins.

2. Use evidence in the text to answer each question. Color the evidence.

A. Why are tiger sharks called like that?

B. What color is the skin of a tiger shark?

C. What do tiger sharks eat?
